

WORLD RESOURCES FORUM

Geneva, 23-24 October 2019

MAKING NATURAL RESOURCE GOVERNANCE FIT FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

“Towards a Public Innovation Compass”

Welcome to the Workshop

Towards a Public Innovation Compass

Workshop at the World Resource Forum in Geneva
Wednesday, 23rd of October, 12:30 – 14:00 | Room: 5
Contact: ulrike.wunderle@vdw-ev.de

Moderator/Organizer:

Caroline Paulick-Thiel, Director of Politics for Tomorrow, Germany
Dr. Ulrike Wunderle, Federation of German Scientists (FGS), Germany

Speakers:

Lene Krogh Jeppesen, Center for Offentlig Innovation (COI), Denmark
Angela Hanson, Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), Paris

Join us and explore co-creative approaches to Responsible Research and Innovation (RRI)
in the Public Sector!

What to expect:

- Discover successful practices related to RRI dimensions and values in Public Innovation processes
- Identify benefits of RRI to Public Innovation, obstacles for implementation and ways to overcome them
- Contribute your experience
- Get involved in creating the Public Innovation Compass

Workshop Agenda

- Welcome & Framing
- Input Angela Hanson, OECD Paris
 - Q&A: How can we legitimize a new status quo / Modell & OECD Declaration?
- Input Lene Krogh Jeppesen, COI Denmark
 - Q&A: Numbers, Facts and Stories / Innovationbarometer
- Introduction to group work based on the development of the DACH innovation compass
- Group work
- Presentation of Group work results and discussion

WORLD RESOURCES FORUM

Geneva, 23-24 October 2019

MAKING NATURAL RESOURCE GOVERNANCE FIT FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

Thank you!

Stay connected...